

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

1. The 2011 Walkley Book Award is open to all examples of non-fiction work.
2. All books must have been published in the 12 months from September 1, 2010 to August 31, 2011.
3. Six full versions of the published work, complete with 200-word synopsis and 200-word entry statement (six copies of each) must be submitted in hard copy, and one copy on CD.
4. Each title must be submitted by the author and authorised by the publisher. Entries can be a joint collaboration of up to five people.
5. Titles can be an edited collection of no more than five authors.
6. Content can be of Australian or international subject matter and can be historical in context.
7. Authors must be Australian citizens or permanent residents of Australia.
8. Books will not be eligible if a significant portion has been previously published in book form.
9. All entries should declare any subsequent formal corrections, challenges to the accuracy of an entry or claims of plagiarism or defamation against the work.
10. An author may enter only once into the category.
11. The cost of entering the awards, including GST, is $260 per entry. Through its support of the Walkley Awards, the Alliance covers the entry costs for its financial members as a benefit of membership. Financial members are not required to pay the entry fee except where a non-member is part of a team entry, in which case the normal entry fee ($260 only) is required.
12. If the entry is by multiple authors, an individual entry fee must be paid for each author that is not a member of the Alliance.
13. Judges have the right to reject an entry, which in their opinion does not comply with the requirements of the competition. The judges' decision will be final. The Walkley Advisory Board reserves the right to withdraw a Walkley Award if it later finds the entrant did not comply with the entry conditions.
14. The Walkley Foundation reserves the right to use all material submitted for presentation and media use and to reproduce it for the purposes of promoting the awards and for allowing a telecast of the awards presentation ceremony.
15. Entries will not be returned.
16. First round entries close at 5pm on Thursday, June 30 2011 and second round entries close at 5pm on Wednesday, August 31, 2011.

This unique Walkley Book Award celebrates excellence in non-fiction writing. The growing contribution Australian authors and journalists are making to literature reinforces the vital role journalism plays in documenting the first cut of history.

The winner will join the ranks of Shirley Shackleton (The Circle of Silence), Graham Freudenberg (Churchill and Australia), Don Watson (American Journeys), Chris Masters (Jonestown), Neil Chenoweth (Packer's Lunch) and Bob Connolly (Making Black Harvest).

The award is open to Australian journalists or writers whose work was published in the year from 1 September, 2010 to 31 August, 2011. Entrants must be Australian citizens or permanent residents of Australia.

Entries can encompass subject matter including true crime and biographies through to political analysis, business writing, war reporting, investigative journalism and foreign correspondence.

Judges will determine a long-list and shortlist of nominees prior to the announcement of the winners at the 56th Walkley Awards on November 24, 2011.
